IMPROVING THE FINANCIAL SITUATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS

Report of the Secretary-General

Addendum

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The financial position of the United Nations remains critical. Total unpaid assessed contributions remain at perilously high levels. The present addendum is issued to provide Member States with the most current information on the financial situation of the Organization.

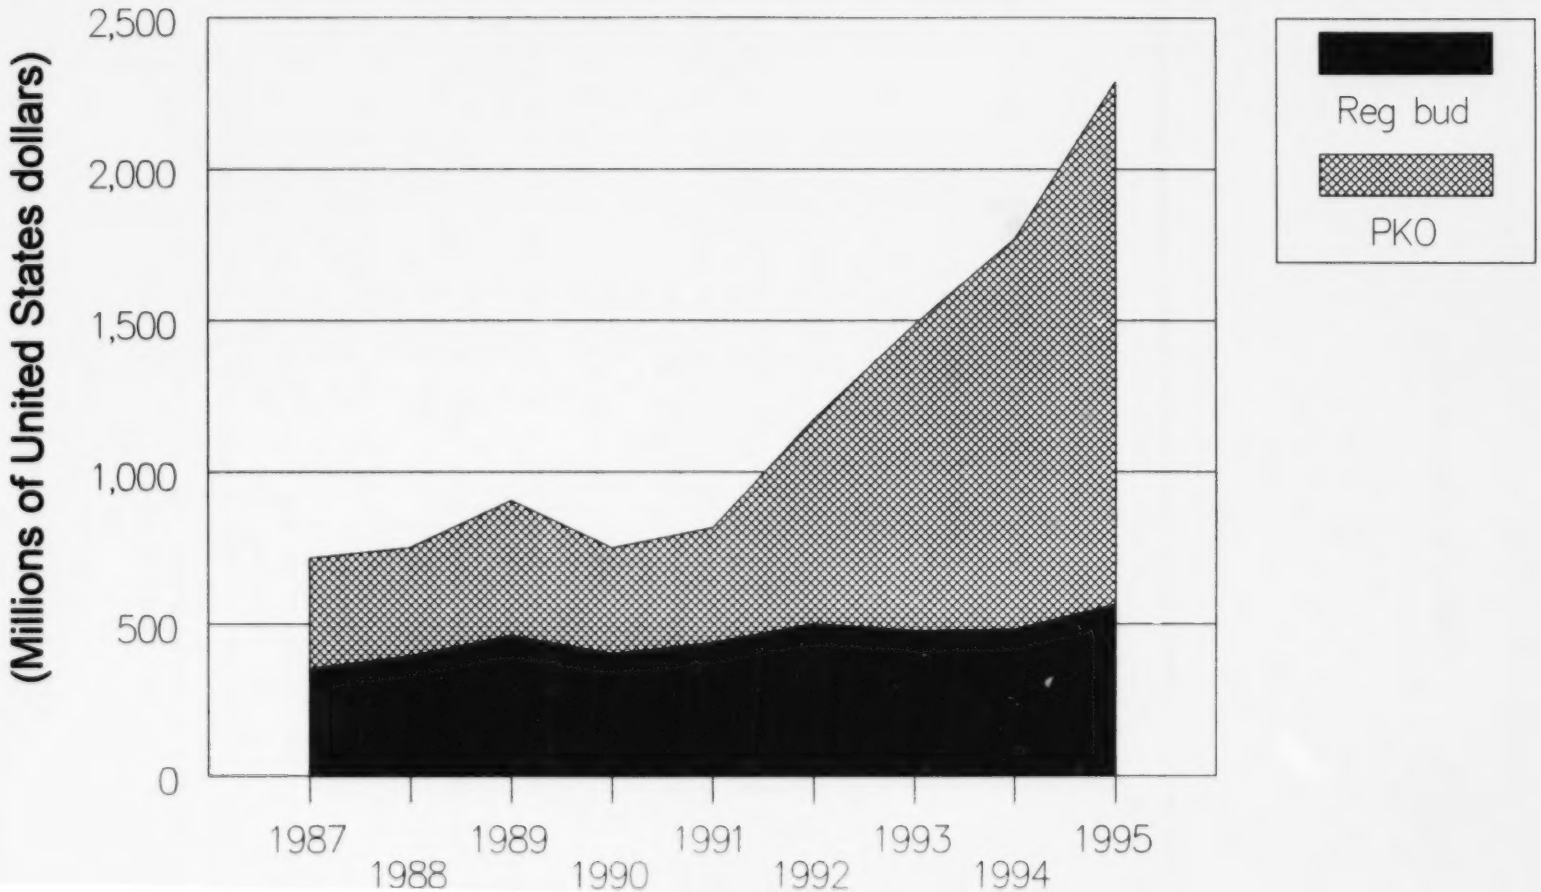
II. STATUS OF CONTRIBUTIONS AT 31 DECEMBER 1995

2. By 31 December 1995, only 94 Member States had paid their regular budget contributions in full, up from 75 at the end of 1994. The number of Member States making no contribution to the regular budget in 1995 was 22, down from 39, while the number owing more than the current year's assessment rose from 71 at the end of 1994 to 74 at year-end 1995.

3. Total amounts outstanding for the regular budget were $564 million, up from $480 million at 31 December 1994. Amounts outstanding for peace-keeping operations totalled $1.7 billion, up from $1.3 billion at the end of 1994, and contributions outstanding for the international tribunals for Rwanda and the former Yugoslavia totalled over $5 million. Of the amounts outstanding at the end of 1995, the Member State with the largest assessment owed 73.5 per cent of amounts outstanding for the regular budget and 47.4 per cent of amounts outstanding for peace-keeping operations. The continuing increase in unpaid contributions is illustrated below:

UNPAID ASSESSED CONTRIBUTIONS

Regular budget & peace-keeping combined



4. Annex I to the present report provides a listing of outstanding contributions from Member States, totalling $2,293.1 million at 31 December 1995.

III. STATUS OF CONTRIBUTIONS AT 15 MARCH 1996

5. By 15 March 1996, additional assessments totalling $1,598.8 million had been issued. At the same date, receipts and credits totalled $770.3 million, so that total outstanding assessments grew to $3,121.7 million; this amount included $157.7 million of assessments issued within the 30-day due period. A listing of the outstanding contributions from Member States as at 15 March 1996 is provided in annex II.

A. Status of assessed contributions to the regular budget

6. At the end of 1995, unpaid assessments to the regular budget totalled $564 million. On 29 December, additional assessments of $1,137.3 million were issued for 1996. Twenty-five Member States had paid their regular budget assessments in full by 31 January 1996, up from 19 at the same date in 1995. By 15 March 1996, a further 16 Member States had paid their regular budget assessments in full. Thus, by 15 March 1996, 41 Member States had fully paid their regular budget assessments compared to 29 Member States in the comparable period in 1995 - a considerable improvement for which the Secretary-General is very appreciative. The comparative pattern of payments in the two years is shown in annex III.

7. As at 15 March 1996, payments and credits totalling $477.9 million had been received, leaving outstanding contributions to the regular budget of $1,223.4 million. Of this amount, $698.9 million, or 57.1 per cent, related to amounts owed by the Member State with the largest assessment.

B. Status of assessed contributions for peace-keeping operations

8. At the end of 1995, unpaid assessments for peace-keeping operations totalled $1.7 billion. During 1996 additional assessments totalling $454.0 million had been issued by 15 March 1996. After the application of payments and credits totalling $289.1 million, the total of outstanding assessed contributions for peace-keeping at 15 March 1996 was $1,888.8 million, of which $152.0 million related to assessments issued within the 30-day due period. Of the total amount, the Member State with the largest assessment owed $900.9 million, or 47.7 per cent.

C. Status of assessed contributions for international tribunals

9. At the end of 1995, unpaid assessments for the international tribunals for Rwanda and the former Yugoslavia totalled $5.2 million. Assessments totalling $7.6 million have been issued subsequently for the period from 1 January to 31 March 1996. Following receipt of $3.2 million, outstanding assessments at

Situation as at 31 December

15 March 1996 totalled $9.6 million, of which $5.7 million had been issued within the 30-day due period.

IV. CASH FLOW SITUATION

10. Cash balances for the combined General Fund (the regular budget, the Working Capital Fund and the Special Account) were at an unprecedented negative $198 million at the end of 1995. This reflected the need during 1995, following the exhaustion of the Organization's reserves in August, to borrow continuously and extensively from peace-keeping operations to fund regular budget activities. At the end of 1995, such borrowing had reached $176 million. (It should be understood that the difference in amount between the negative cash balances and the amount of borrowings represent cheques that had been issued but not yet presented.)

11. The payment of regular budget assessments during 1996 has made it possible to repay the amounts borrowed from peace-keeping operations by the end of February.

12. Based on information provided by the 25 largest contributors and the pattern of payment in previous years, cash flow projections have been made for the regular budget in 1996. On the basis of these projections, the cash position for the regular budget should remain positive through June. Thereafter, however, it would become negative and, by year-end, this negative balance would be $424 million. This situation is illustrated in annex IV. Current projections are not materially different from those made in early February, although there has been some net slippage of anticipated receipts in the first quarter of 1996.

13. As regards the peace-keeping accounts, the growing level of unpaid contributions has made it necessary to continue to be cautious regarding reimbursements to troop-contributing countries for troop costs and contingent-owned equipment. Some $50 million, however, will be paid at the end of next month. After this payment, the amounts owed will be slightly more than $1.1 billion. Current projections indicate that, even if unpaid reimbursements are kept at this unacceptable level, the overall cash position of peace-keeping operations will fall to $340 million by the end of 1996, barely enough to meet two months' peace-keeping requirements.

14. It is, however, noteworthy that the Russian Federation announced in early March its intention to pay an aggregate amount of $400 million in 1996 for its regular budget and peace-keeping assessments, an amount considerably in excess of previously forecast payments. This development has not been reflected in the cash flow forecasts, pending further clarification on the specific amounts and timing of such payments, as the national budget is being executed. The receipt of such payments would, of course, have a positive effect on the amounts to be reimbursed to Member States for troops and contingent-owned equipment during the balance of the year.

V. CONCLUSION

15. The bleak picture outlined in my earlier reports on the financial situation of the Organization will be eased by the matter described in the preceding paragraph, but it has not fundamentally changed. Without a significantly greater commitment by Member States to honour their obligations under the Charter, our financial position remains extremely precarious. The situation remains grave and the time for finding a solution is running out.

f/ Includes an amount of $13,690,003 owed by the former German Democratic Republic for the United Nations Interim Force in Lebanon (UNIFIL). Through accession of the German Democratic Republic to the Federal Republic of Germany with effect from 3 October 1990, the two German States united to form one sovereign State. As from the date of unification, the Federal Republic of Germany has acted in the United Nations under the designation "Germany". On 3 October 1990, total contributions outstanding amounted to $15,854,003 for the former German Democratic Republic. There were no contributions outstanding for the Federal Republic of Germany. The German Government wishes to point out that it does not recognize any legal obligation to pay the debts of the former German Democratic Republic. However, it has already made voluntary contributions totalling $2,164,000 and will make additional voluntary contributions of appropriate amounts in due course.

g/ Figures for South Africa reflect implementation of General Assembly resolution 50/83 of 15 December 1995, by which the Assembly decided to accept South Africa's request not to pay its assessed contributions for the period from 30 September 1974 to 23 June 1994.

h/ The Czech and Slovak Federal Republic was dissolved effective 31 December 1992. Based on a bilateral agreement, the credits and outstanding contributions of the former Czech and Slovak Federal Republic have been divided between the Czech Republic and Slovakia. Pending the placement of the Czech Republic and Slovakia in the appropriate group (General Assembly decision 48/472 A), no assessments have been issued for peace-keeping operations.

Through accession of the German Democratic Republic to the Federal Republic of Germany with effect from 3 October 1990, the two German States united to form one sovereign State. As from the date of unification, the Federal Republic of Germany has acted in the United Nations under the designation "Germany". On 3 October 1990, total contributions outstanding amounted to $15,854,003 for the former German Democratic Republic. There were no contributions outstanding for the Federal Republic of Germany. The German Government wishes to point out that it does not recognize any legal obligation to pay the debts of the former German Democratic Republic. However, it has already made voluntary contributions totalling $2,164,000 and will make additional voluntary contributions of appropriate amounts in due course.

g/ The Czech and Slovak Federal Republic was dissolved effective 31 December 1992. Based on a bilateral agreement, the credits and outstanding contributions of the former Czech and Slovak Federal Republic have been divided between the Czech Republic and Slovakia. Pending the placement of the Czech Republic and Slovakia in the appropriate group (General Assembly decision 48/472 A), no assessments have been issued for peace-keeping operations.
